The field and the structures of the Acaya Golf Club Spa rise to few kilometers from Lecce, among the citadel strengthened of Acaya and the Adriatic behind the naturalistic oasis of the Cesine.

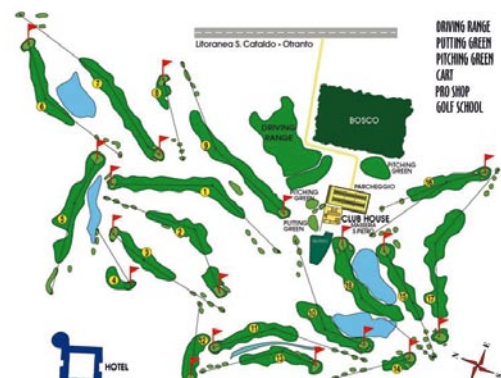

A little anymore to south Otranto, with its crystalline sea, it is tourist station open to the international tourism, with the important structures of the Club Med, of the Valtur, of the villages of Serra degli Alimini.

The society Acaya Golf Club Spa is among the founders of the consortium Puglia Golf, organism that gathers 19 golf initiatives pugliesi. The consortium has the purpose to promote the sweater as essential factor for the qualitative raising of the sporting and tourist offer of the whole Region in the full respect and exploitation of the environment.

The field to 18 holes is inserted in an area of around 100 hectares, inside a natural context of rare beauty. A dense wood of lecci, vast olive-groves and appreciated spontaneous vegetation they serve as contour to the run of game that develops him in an environment where the human presence it is not warned and where the eye spaces on the sky line made only of nature and pure air. The climate of Puglia, and particularly of the Salento allows the practice of the sweater during the whole year.

From the Club House the splendid sight on the run, with two great lakes that coast along the holes, you elegantly abandon on a nature that entertains her, and that it exalts the characteristics of it. The structure includes the field practice, pitching green and putting green. The Club House has been drawn by the restauration of the Farm St. Pietro, valuable structure of the XVII century, from the unmistakable court architecture.

The inside of the Club House includes, to the plain earth, pleasant rooms for reunions and relax, a shop very furnished, the cafe, the restaurant, the locker rooms and the showers, besides the deposits for the equipments. The close-up to environments more set apart is destined instead for the game and the reunions. The cloister around which the Club House develops him welcomes, from March to October, the structures to the open one of the cafe and of the restaurant.
